C230 ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE CLASSES 160

You'll feel so much better after this – two Alexander Technique lessons with Sofia Engel. The Alexander Technique is a method that works to change (movement) habits in our everyday activities. It is a simple and practical method for improving ease and freedom of movement, balance, support and coordination. The technique teaches the use of the appropriate amount of effort for a particular activity, giving you more energy for all your activities. It is not a series of treatments or exercises, but rather a reeducation of the mind and body. The Alexander Technique is a method which helps you discover a new balance in the body by releasing unnecessary tension. It can be applied to sitting, lying down, standing, walking, lifting, and other daily activities.

They are down in the beach volleyball area west of the Hudson Beach Café in Riverside Park at 105th Street. Maybe you've seen them and thought 'Not for me!' Ira Gershenhorn, a BTW parent, also thought that and through perserverence is now able to do it. Ira is confident he can teach you how to get started also, in a very safe, and non-stressful way (after you've signed a multitude of disclaimer forms). Traveling rings provides a fun and challenging exercise for the whole body. You will be amazed at how quickly your body starts adapting to this unusual regime. Ira has zero background as a trainer other than the experience he's gained coaching/advising innumerable children and adults at the rings between March 2006 and now and also by his participation in the Rings Community. Consider this offer for two one-hour classes/sessions at the rings with one lunch at the Hudson Beach Café. Ira will explain and demonstrate basic techniques, beneficial exercises and point out advanced techniques. He'll teach hand and shoulder health. He'll provide chalk and show you a variety of gripping gloves if you are interested in pursuing this further. Slackline time/instruction included. More info at <http://www.swingaring.com>.

F417a MR. BARTON WILL BE VIRGIL TO YOUR DANTE PRICELESS

A memorable quest! Mr. Barton will guide your child and a friend through the divine comedy of South Brooklyn. The day begins with a homemade Russian lunch in Brighton Beach, the journey's starting point. You will then venture westward down the boardwalk with a simultaneous translation of and commentary on the local scene. When you have traveled half way, you will pass the Cyclone and the Himalaya and descend into Dante's Inferno, Astropark's long surviving spook-house. Next you will climb the stairs to the purgatorial Coney Island Side Show, where Insectavora and the Inflatable Boy will lead us to contemplate life's strangeness with their Dantescan acts of endurance. The day concludes with an ascension to the spheres on the Wonder Wheel and an unfortunate but obligatory return to earth and home. At the end of the day, the participating students will receive one all-beef Nathan's Famous hotdog in natural casing and an English translation of the Inferno with the Italian text en face. Itinerary depends on schedule, weather, availability and appetite of students.

T802 BACKSTAGE TOUR OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE priceless

What a treat! You've seen their amazing productions from the audience, now see them from behind the scenes. You and three of your friends will enjoy a 1.5 -2 hour backstage tour of the Metropolitan Opera House with David Moodey, Head of Construction in the Electrical Department. This tour will be on a weekday. David recommends doing the tour during the opera season, which for this season ends the first week of May. Rehearsals are 11am to 2pm. If you are interested in seeing a bit of rehearsal noon is the best time. If not, 3pm is good as you get to watch the stage crew strike the afternoon rehearsal scenery and bring on the props for that evening's performance

T803 JOURNEY'S END - FOUR ORCHESTRA SEATS APRIL 14 AND YUKI SUSHI GIFT CERTIFICATE 450

A great night out - start with a pre-theater dinner at Yuki Sushi with this $50 gift certificate, followed by 'Journeys End'. The play has been called 'a knockout' and 'riveting' - and we have four prime tickets for the Saturday, April 14th 8 pm show - center orchestra, two rows from the stage. They are waiting for you if you win this bid! Journey's End stars Hugh Dancy, Boyd Gaines, and Jefferson Mays and Stark Sands - an acclaimed drama inspired by a true story of friendship and survival. Based on playwright R.C. Sherriff's experiences in World War I, Journey's End, with its humor, heroism, and humanity, is as powerful and timely now as ever.
